Medina and Flores Recite Nuptial Vows

The Holy Family Church of Wilmington was the setting for the 12 p.m. wedding services uniting Sylvia Medina and Benny Flores Jr., June 21.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amador Medina, 1307 Lowen St., Wilmington, approached the altar on the arm of her father, wearing a gown of white satin and lace and carrying a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Mary Perez acted as the maid of honor. Her dress was a pink chiffon styled with a lace bodice and her flowers were pink carnations.

Jess Perez served as best man for the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benny Flores, of 1618 West 215th St.

Flower girl Aida Perez wore a frock identical to that of the maid of honor.

Serving as bridesmaids were Rose Marie Ramos, Dorothy Esbedo, Nena Rodriguez, Joanne Medina, Rosalie Rodriguez, Connie Calderon, Linda Gutierrez, Isabel Argueta, Bernice Flores and Juanita Gomez.

Ushers were Bobby Ramos, Carl Wada, Hide Yoshinaga, Richard Medina, Katsuki Mine, Paul Avila, Frank Escudero, John De Leon, Richard Serpa, and Leonard Estrada.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a pink dress with black accessories for the occasion. The bride's mother chose an all-beige ensemble.

Following the wedding, a reception with more than 600 guests in attendance was held in honor of the newlyweds at the Retail Clerks Hall, Harbor City, from 2 to 5 p. m.

The bride is a graduate of Banning High School. The bridegroom, now attending El Camino College, was graduated from Narbonne High School and is employed by the Stratons Fairchild Engine and Airplane Corp. in Manhattan Beach.

The newlyweds presently are spending two weeks of their honeymoon at San Diego, where the bridegroom is an active member of the Marine Reserve. A week in Las Vegas will follow.

The couple's new residence will be at 306 West Carson St., where their future home is now under construction.

Nuptial Vows Link Freer and Mitchell

Gowned in a flowing bridal dress of lace over tulle, Miss Jeanette Marie Freer became the bride of Michael Charles Mitchell June 27, at the Mormon Church of San Pedro, 2 p. m.

Miss Freer, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay P. Freer of 170 Via Los Miradores, Redondo Beach, carried a bouquet of cascade pink roses and stephanotis encircling a large white orchid. Her gown was fashioned with a sabbina neckline, fingertip sleeves and fitted bodice. A Juliette cap and veil completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Terrence Mitchell, cousin of the bride, served her as Matron of Honor as she was given in marriage by her father to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Mitchell of 14701 Newland St., Midway City.

Ferns and flowers decorated the church for the service performed by President R. Gagon.

The bride's attendants included bridesmaids Misses Susanne Freer, sister of the bride, Betty Morris, Donna Ibbotson and Miss Michele Redhead. Misses Freer and Morris wore identical gowns of pink taffeta with matching accessories and carried pink bouquets. Misses Ibbotson and Redhead were gowned in blue taffeta and carried blue bouquets.

The matron of honor wore a lime green dress with white accessories and carried a white bouquet of carnations tied with lime ribbon. Flower girls, both cousins of the bride, were Misses Diana and Lynn Frost. They wore yellow taffeta dresses and carried yellow flowers.

Terrence Mitchell, the bridegroom's brother, acted as best man. Ushers were Paul Pasco, Bill Frost, Bert Frost and Bob Black.

The bride's mother chose a blue sheath with white accessories and a pink orchid for the occasion. The mother of the bridegroom wore a blue dress with matching accessories and a blue orchid.

A reception for the young couple followed at the church, with 300 guests in attendance. The newlyweds then left for their honeymoon in Palm Springs and Catalina.

Soloist at the wedding was F. Ehlers, accompanied by Caroline Hanneman, Mrs. R. Mussner, from Oakland, a cousin of the bride, acted as guest book registrar.

The new Mrs. Freer is a graduate of Torrance High School, '58, and attended El Camino College. She has been employed by the South Bay Center.

The bridegroom graduated from Huntington Beach High School in 1957 and is currently serving with the U. S. Navy Air Division at Brown Field, Chula Vista.

The couple will make their home at Chula Vista.

Narbonne High Reunion Held

Receding hair lines and offspring of high school age were a few of the changes noted at the 25th reunion of the Narbonne High School Class of 1935.

The dinner-dance at the Palms Restaurant last Saturday brought lots of chuckles as album photos were compared and high school days remembered.

Mrs. H. Marie Stiff, the class homeroom teacher for six years, was guest of honor at the affair. Since her first teaching position in Lomita in 1923, she has taught for a total of 35 years in the local schools.

RECENT NUPTIALS at the Acacia Baptist Church, Hawthorne, June 28, united the former Miss Anna Pearl Provost and Clifford Leroy Witherspoon. The young couple are now at home at 1534 W. 227th St.

Courtesy Night Set by Amaranth Order

Lomita Court No. 61 Order of the Amaranth will hold Courtesy Night at its next meeting, July 9. Officers of other courts in the area will be invited to assume stations of the Lomita Court.

At the recent June 25 meeting the court was honored by the official visit of the Assistant Grand Lecturer, Sir Knight James B. Bellah and the District Deputy Assistant Grand Royal Matron, Honored Lady Lillian Robinson. Officers of the court headed by the Royal Matron, H. L. Grace Herd and the Royal Patron S. K. Fred Bacon exemplified the ritualistic work and were complimented by the inspecting officers.

Included in the ceremonies was the initiation of the following members: H. L. Katherine Sweet, H. L. Adyell Burdick and S. K. James Burdick.

Other distinguished guests of the evening were H. L. Audrey Bacon, Grand Representative to the State of Minnesota, H. L. Della Pinkerton, Grand Representative to the State of Wisconsin and S. K. Clyde Satterfield, Grand Prelate.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room by H. L. Gladys Mothersell, Past Royal Matron and her committee.

Catalina Visit Given Departing Exchange Student

Mr. and Mrs. Don B. Wolf and family, of 21804 Halldale St., entertained their year-long exchange student "son" for the last time recently. The Wolfs, who own their own boat, spent a family vacation at Catalina featuring Dieter Sailer to a last look at the California coastline.

Dieter, who will return to his home in Boppard, Germany, around the end of this month, is now touring the United States as a wind-up of the American Field Service program for foreign exchange students. Though he hopes to become a diplomat in his own country, Dieter expressed a desire to come back to America some time in the future. The Wolfs and Dieter plan on keeping close contact until that time.

Gershwin Evening
An evening of Gershwin is planned by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club. Members and their husbands will charter a bus for the trip to the Hollywood Bowl July 18. The group plans to take luncheon for a pre-concert picnic.
